

See Bountiful

DAY ONE

- Arrive at Montrose Orchard for strawberry, blueberry or pumpkin picking, a hayride and a class on seasonal jam making and take a jar of jam home with you.
- Arrive at the New Flint Farmers Market, where a food demonstration will take place using locally grown produce. Half the bus will attend the food demonstration, the other half will do a cheese and wine pairing tasting. After 45 minutes the each group will experience the other activity.
- Lunch will be on you own at the Flint Farmers Market. Enjoy local barbeque, Middle Eastern or Mexican. A turkey store offers sandwiches and Steady Eddies offers soups, salads, sandwiches and vegetarian fare.
- Tour Applewood Estates, the estate is formerly owned by Charles Stewart Mott a mayor and descendant of Mott's Applesauce. The tour will include the rose gardens, flower gardens, the grounds and green house.
- Check into your hotel and freshen up a bit.
- Depart for dinner at The Cork on Saginaw

DAY TWO

- Travel to Pebblebrook Alpaca Farm to see alpaca's in their natural environment and watch as the owners make yarn out of their coat.
- Arrive at Cooks Dairy Farm to watch the process of milking cows and making fresh ice cream and before you leave enjoy a serving of vanilla, chocolate or strawberry.
- Arrive at Heavenly Scent Herb farm where you will be getting your hands on experience on how to use unusual herbs in your everyday cooking.
- Lunch will be at The Laundry A part of the Fenton community for over a decade, The Laundry serves breakfast, lunch and dinner seven days a week in a casual bistro atmosphere. Our Lunch menu features over 40 delectable deli sandwiches, housemade soups, and luncheon entrees. A rotating seasonal Dinner menu is designed by Executive Chef Jody Brunori and highlights the highest quality meats and produce available. A vigorous organic kitchen garden behind the restaurant provides Chef Jody's kitchen with herbs and vegetables during the spring and summer months, while an on-site bee hive yields honey for use in both the kitchen and bar..

- After lunch you will be head to The Crust-A Baking Company where you will have hands on class in pie, cookie or bread making.
- Cookie or cupcake decorating will take place at Bellla Birches in Flushing, where you will decorate 3 cupcakes or cookies.
- Then head to Redwood Lodge, where you will have a class on Michigan Beers and a special dinner picked out by you.
- Dinner will be at Redwood Steakhouse.
 - Enjoy light Chef's hors d'oeuvres served with beer inspired cocktails.
 - Beer Education class offered with brewer including three 6 oz beer samples.
 - Your choice of dinner from one of 5 selections
 - Dessert.
- Then back to your hotel.

See Antiques

DAY ONE

- Breakfast at hotel
- Depart for Nick's Consignment Emporium
- Depart for Carriage Town Antiques
- Enjoy lunch Al Fresco style at Hoffman's Deco Deli attached to Carriage Town Antiques
- Depart for Collette's Vintage and Antique Mall
- Arrive at the Cork on Saginaw for dinner and a class on Wines of Spain and Tango lesson.

DAY TWO

- Breakfast at hotel
- Depart for Downtown Holly Battle Alley: stroll downtown antique stores and specialty shops in quaint historical Holly.
- Lunch will be on own in downtown Holly with three restaurants to choose from.
- Depart for the Genevieve's Antique Treasures in Davison
- Depart for Village Square Antiques in Davison

