DAY 2

Continue your journey further into southern Vermont. Depart your hotel for Manchester. Start the day at Hildene, The Lincoln Family Home and tour the home where Abraham Lincoln's descendants lived until 1975. The 24-room Georgian Revival mansion is beautifully preserved. Explore the formal gardens and view the restored 1903 Pullman Palace Railroad car.

Enjoy lunch and shopping; visit the outlets in Manchester. Depart for Weston and The Vermont Country Store. Step back to a simpler time and place. Founded in 1946, this authentic country store is stocked to the rafters with thousands of wonderful goods, food products and more.

Travel northeast to Billings Farm & Museum in Woodstock. Step into farm life and experience the beauty and inspiration of Vermont's working landscape. Enjoy the quintessential town of Woodstock. Explore the wonderful shops, restaurants and galleries, and stop by the covered bridge for a photo op.

Venture east into Quechee. Explore Quechee Gorge, Vermont's little Grand Canyon and shop at Quechee Gorge Village. Travel south to Norwich and visit King Arthur Bakery + Café, Store & School. Watch artisan bakers at work in the bakery and shop for all your baking needs.

Spend the night in White River Junction at the Hampton Inn White River Junction Hotel.

DAY 3

Depart your lodging for Graniteville and visit Vermont Granite Museum and Morse Farm Maple in Montpelier. Travel on to Ben & Jerry's Factory in Waterbury. Enjoy an old favorite flavor or try a new one at the scoop shop and browse the gift shop. Stop at Cold Hollow Cider Mill and shop the Vermont maple and other specialty products, fresh bakery, cider donuts and more.

Arrive in Stowe and explore the shops on Main Street before dining at von Trapp Family Lodge and Resort. Spend the night in one of the area's many lodging properties, such as von Trapp Family Lodge and Resort, or Best Western Plus Waterbury-Stowe.

After exploring the highlights of Vermont from north to south, depart for home. Thank you for visiting Vermont!
